

SAVE THE DATES!

Governor Jonathan Trumbull Tercentennial Encampment October 2-3, 2010

On the Historic Lebanon Green Lebanon, Connecticut

A Time Line Encampment Celebrating the 300th Birthday of Connecticut's Revolutionary War Leader

All 18th-century Living History Re-enactors spanning his lifetime, 1710-1785,
are invited to participate:

- Sutlers • Fur Traders • Native Americans •
  - French & Indian War • Revolutionary War •
  - Colonial Militia • Continental and French Army Units •
  - Camp followers and Craftsmen •
- (Registration forms and information available in January 2010.)*

**Special Activities at the Historic Sites Around the Green**
will complement the Encampment

*Governor Jonathan Trumbull House, Revolutionary War Office, Jonathan Trumbull Jr. House Museum, Lebanon
Historical Society Museum, Dr. Wm. Beaumont Birthplace, and
First Congregational Church designed by patriot-artist John Trumbull*

Sponsored by the Lebanon Historical Society and the Town of Lebanon

FOR INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Alicia Wayland, Town Historian
aliciawayland@charter.net
105 W. Town St., Lebanon, CT 06249 • 860-642-7987

Lebanon is a major location on the * Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Road National Historic Trail. *
The town was the site of the nearly 8-month encampment of Lauzun's Legion, the cavalry unit of the French army, Nov. 1780-June 1781.