

The Day

close window

America's First Veterans

America's First Veterans

By Tim Cook

Published on 5/24/2009 in Home » Region » Region News

Alice Dickenson of the Daughters of the American Revolution carries flags to place on the graves of Revolutionary War patriots in Cedar Grove Cemetery in New London on Saturday during an annual flag placement ceremony. The ceremony was organized by the Capt. Nathan Hale Branch of the Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Total 3 images.

Buy Photo

By Tim Cook

Buy Photo

By Tim Cook

Alice Dickenson of the Daughters of the American Revolution places flags on the graves of Revolutionary War veterans in Cedar Grove Cemetery in New London on the Saturday of Memorial Day weekend during an annual flag placement ceremony.

Buy Photo

By Tim Cook

The color guard from the Capt. Nathan Hale Branch of the Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution fires a musket volley during the flag placement ceremony. The society hosted the ceremony.