

Lyman Hall Monument Dedication—Saturday May 23, 2009 - 1:00 pm

The purpose of this celebration is to re-dedicate the area of Lyman Hall's birthplace. Boy Scout Troop 4 (St . Paul's Church) recently landscaped the existing monument area. Some of the new improvements include a brick walkway, sign, shrubs and a bench. They also painted the flagpole and wrought iron fence. This project was part of Chris Farrell's Eagle Project. The monument is located directly across from Pat Wall Field (next to 355 South Elm Street) in Wallingford. All are welcome to attend.
