

Connecticut SAR - ROTC/JROTC Report for April 27, 2019

Chairmen – David J. Perkins

Committee members/presenters: Ken Roach, Paul Selnau, John Harrison, & Benn Bullock

JROTC Program

Kick-off Letters for 2019 were mailed out in January to the high schools and responses have been arriving over the past few weeks, with 5 high schools confirming dates/cadets. Expect up to 10 medals to be presented this year.

Recap of 2018

JROTC High Schools in Connecticut (14): Bethel, Danbury, Crosby(Waterbury), Wilby(Waterbury), Hillhouse(New Haven), Bloomfield, New London, Naugatuck, Norwalk, Brian McMahon(Norwalk), New Britain, Westhill(Stamford), Torrington and Windsor. For 2018, ten medals were presented during the spring ceremonies.

Enhanced Program

For 2018, Enhanced Program Winners: 1st Bethel, 2nd Naugatuck, 3rd New Britain.

For 2019, Enhanced Program Winners: 1st Danbury, 2nd Bethel

2018 Naval Sea Cadet Corp

Bronze Good Citizenship medal with Ribbon Bar was awarded at 2 of 4 sites across the state:

Nautilus Division in Groton presentation was made by the Capt. Nathan Hale branch.

Barque Eagle Division in Plainville presentation was made by the Color Guard.

2019 Naval Sea Cadet Corp

No awards have been requested as of this date

2018 ROTC Awards

Dave Packard presented awards at UCONN on April 5 and 6. Yale did not participate this year.

2019 ROTC Awards

Dave Packard presented awards at UCONN on April 11 and 26. Yale did not participate this year.

Respectfully Submitted,

David J. Perkins