

Connecticut SAR - ROTC/JROTC Report as of November 3, 2018

Chairmen – David J. Perkins

Committee members/presenters: Ken Roach, Stephen Taylor, John Harrison, & Benn Bullock

JROTC Program

Kick-off Letters for 2019 will go out this month to the high schools.

Recap of 2018

JROTC High Schools in Connecticut (14): Bethel, Danbury, Crosby(Waterbury), Wilby(Waterbury), Hillhouse(New Haven), Bloomfield, New London, Naugatuck, Norwalk, Brian McMahon(Norwalk), New Britain, Westhill(Stamford), Torrington and Windsor.

For 2018, Enhanced Program Winners: 1st Bethel, 2nd Naugatuck and 3rd New Britain.

Michael Renda of Bethel did receive his 1st place medal and $500 award at our annual meeting on April 21 in Wethersfield. The state runner-up was also recognized at his annual awards ceremony in May with a medal and cash award of $100. Also presented with $25 cash awards was the 3rd place winner.

In total, eleven medals were presented during the spring of 2018.

National news update! 2nd Place was raised from $1,500 to $2,000; and new 4th and 5th places awards at $200 were created for 2019.

2018 Naval Sea Cadet Corp

Bronze Good Citizenship medal with Ribbon Bar was awarded at a June 10th picnic for the Barque Eagle Division in Plainville.

The Hale branch awarded a Bronze Good Citizenship medal and Ribbon Bar at a ceremony in Groton on June 3rd to a member of the Edison Division.

2 out of 4 units were recognized this year.

2018 ROTC Awards

Dave Packard presented awards at UCONN on April 5 and 6. Yale did not participate this year.

Respectfully Submitted,

David J. Perkins

CTSSAR ROTC/JROTC Chairmen