

DAR / C.A.R. LIAISON COMMITTEE Report

November 2018

DAR

On Independence Day, the Gov. Oliver Wolcott, Sr. Branch SAR participated in a ceremony sponsored by the Mary Floyd Tallmadge Chapter DAR at the graves of Benjamin Tallmadge (a senior intelligence officer under Gen. Washington and the leader of the Culper Spy Ring) and Gov. Oliver Wolcott, Sr. (19th Governor of Connecticut and a signer of the Declaration of Independence).

On September 15th, the Gov. Oliver Wolcott, Sr. Branch SAR participated in “A Day of Revolutionary History” presented by the Roger Sherman Chapter DAR in New Milford, CT.

C.A.R.

The new State President of the Connecticut Society C.A.R. (C.S.C.A.R.) is Braden Wallace. The Senior State President of the C.S.C.A.R. is Jennie Rehnberg.

The C.S.C.A.R. State Project for 2018-2019 is “Soar the Skies with C.S.C.A.R.” This project will raise awareness of the American Bald Eagle through historical preservation, education, patriotism, and conservation. Braden hopes to raise $3,000 to aid both A Place Called Hope in Killingworth, and Horizon Wings in Ashford. Both are rehabilitation centers for birds of prey.

C.S.C.A.R. has two members serving as National Officers and one serving as a Senior National Officer:

Alec Marshall – National Recording Secretary
Caileigh Murray – New England Regional Vice President
Lynn Marshall – Senior National Historian

Respectfully submitted by:

Kenneth A. Buckbee, Chairman – DAR / C.A.R. Liaison Committee
Alexander M. Marshall – DAR / C.A.R. Liaison Committee Member
